

Scarborough Flare in partnership with
SCARBOROUGH POETRY WORKSHOP

Friday 27th February in
The Gallery @ Woodend
7.00pm for 7.30pm start - 9.30pm

OPEN MIC EVERYONE WELCOME - THE STAGE IS YOURS!

Bring along poetry, drama, prose, acoustic music, (even a magic trick or tell a story) anything you like .... up to 5 minutes long.

Relaxed and Friendly Atmosphere (Bring Your Own Booze)

If you would like to perform, please arrive at 7.00pm to add your name to the running order, or email in advance: Helen Birmingham (spw.helen@aol.com) We encourage positive feedback from the audience, so even if you don't want to perform you'll still get the chance to participate - tell us what you like, and what you'd like to see more of at future open mic nights.

The evening will include an Exclusive Performance by

Best-selling writer NORAH HANSON

Norah is one of Hull's most important modern poets. Her writing is graceful and intelligent; whether reflecting on the past, confronting present-day 'domestic dilemmas', or looking to the future, Norah remains unswervingly honest, entertaining and innovative. (Norah's poetry is published by Valley Press)

ALSO introducing a very talented NEWCOMER

Scarborough Poetry Workshop 2014 Slam Winner
PHILIPPA BLAKEY

Philippa's poetry has recently been published in the new Valley Press anthology "A Pocketful of Windows"

ENTRY ONLY £2 per head (tickets available on the door)

Soft Drinks Available to Purchase OR

Bring Your Own Booze! (Glasses provided)